- Wear cool, comfortable clothes and shoes suitable for movement and dancing.

Things to bring:

- Water bottle
- Sack lunch & snacks
- Pencil
- Sunscreen and/or a hat for lunch breaks in the park

About the Play:

Over the course of the week, participants will be learning, rehearsing, and performing a short version of the “Wizard of Oz.” We’ll follow Dorothy and her friends along the yellow brick road as they encounter munchkins and witches and finally meet the Wizard! This version of The Wizard of Oz has all the charm and characters from the classic story by L. Frank Baum. It’s a perfect performance piece for children ages 8 and up. Characters include Aunt Em, Uncle Henry, Dorothy, Glinda the Good Witch, Wicked Witch of the West, Munchkins, Scarecrow, Tin Man, Lion, Guard, Wizard of Oz/Guard.

About the Director:

Megan Schrader is a passionate and creative director specializing in children's theater. She is currently directing an upcoming show with Nite Theater this October. Megan has worked with kids in many capacities, including the Boys and Girls Club and various children’s camps. Bringing energy, empathy, and enthusiasm to every role. A lifelong theater lover, Megan began performing at the age of six and has graced the stages of the historical Lincoln Theater, McIntyre Hall, Village Theater in Issaquah, and more. She’s thrilled to be working with this talented cast and can’t wait to follow the yellow brick road with you all this summer!

About the Playwright:

Jennifer Reif has taught, directed, and performed around the Pacific Northwest. Jennifer holds her BA in Theatre from Morningside University and also studied at Oxford University in England.
